

hope that he may escape that.

Dr. J. R. Truscott received a telegram last Friday from Prince Albert, Canada, bringing him the sad news of the death of his father, who died of heart trouble. The old gentleman is remembered by many here, having visited here the past winter. Doctor left Saturday to attend the funeral and expects to be gone for about two weeks.