

and friendship.

A basket social and program will be held in the Adrian school house next Monday evening. Miss Anna Lynne, the teacher, has arranged a good program to be rendered by the pupils, after which the sale of the baskets will commence. Will Adrian has volunteered his services as auctioneer, and "Bill" is capable of getting all that the baskets are worth—and then some. The proceeds will go towards the purchase of a bookcase for the school.

A runaway accident which might