

The household goods, machinery and live stock of Wm. Amos was shipped from Cooperstown to Canada last Saturday. The family left the same day for their new home.