

Frank Baker has rented a farm a mile south of Cooperstown and will move his family and property there in a week or two. Frank is one of the substantial farmers in this territory and has a host of friends in and around Binford who regret his removal.