

Harold Bakke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ole Bakke, had the misfortune to break his leg Tuesday afternoon. He was playing around where some twine was being unloaded and piled up when in some way a bundle rolled off the pile and struck the little fellow's leg breaking it below the knee.