

around again.

Mrs. Martha Beck, who has been at St. Luke's hospital in Fargo for several weeks with a bad arm, was operated upon for appendicitis last Friday morning. Immediately after the operation she was very low but at the present writing is doing as well as can be expected.