

The band members met at the State Bank last Friday evening and decided to re-organize. Several members have left during the past year which will necessitate taking in and working up new members. There is a lot of musical talent among the young boys in Binford and who would soon be a good help to the band. Meet up tomorrow night.

Monday