

At a meeting of the band Monday evening it was decided to move the band stand, which is now on the railroad right-of-way, to the vacant lot north of the opera house. It was also decided that beginning on the Saturday following the 4th, the band will give regular weekly Saturday evening concerts during the summer. A cordial invitation is extended to the farmers to come to town Saturday evenings and listen to the music of the Binford band.

The following items has been an