

day.

The Binford band is to be reorganized. This is a splendid movement and it has the united support of the Commercial club and citizens. Binford, in former years, secured some good advertising through its musical organization, and it is a shame that it was allowed to break up. The boys will meet tomorrow night, and all who are interested to join are urged to be present.

Another interesting session of the