

services elsewhere.

The new ball park, while a trifle slow, in a short time will be one of the best in the state. The outfield right now cannot be beat, and only a little levelling of the infield is all that is required, besides a little more packing. It is the intention of the fair association to plant two rows of trees around the park.

The Swedish midsummer festival