

town, January 20 to 27th.

The First National bank directors met last week. No change was made in the officers. A dividend was declared. The business during the past year has been very satisfactory.

The many friends of Arthur