

Tom Robertson has had the building that stood on the rear of his lots adjoining the First National Bank moved to the front, and is having it remodeled. When completed, P. E. Peterson will move his barber shop into it. He expects to add another chair and a double mirror. His brother from Evansville, Minnesota, will arrive in a short time to learn the trade. "Gull" will have one of the finest shops in this section when he gets straightened around.