

west of school.

Manager Anderson of the drug store, has had the front of the store painted. "Andy" believes in having everything "just so," and that his efforts along that line are appreciated by the public goes without saying.