

MANY THANKS, BRETHREN.

Carl E. Peterson has leased the Binford (N. D.) Times and is now in full control. Carl will give the Binford people a better paper when he assumes the management.—Evansville, Minn., Enterprise.

Carl Peterson, who has been managing editor of the Binford Times since leaving Red Lake Falls two years ago, has leased the paper and will engage in the publishing business on his own account in the future.—Red Lake Falls, Minn., Gazette.

Carl Peterson, who for the past two years has had charge of the Binford Times, has leased the paper for one year and says he will "now go it alone." We know Editor Peterson, a hustling all-round good fellow and up-to-date newspaper man, and wish him success.—Sharon Reporter.

Carl E. Peterson, who has been the manager of the Binford Times for a couple years, has rented the paper and will conduct it during the year. Carl is a good printer and a hustler and will succeed in giving the people of that village and vicinity a good paper if anyone can—and of course Carl can. The Sentinel extends its very best wishes for his success.—Griggs County Sentinel.

Carl E. Peterson, who has been editor of the Binford Times for the past couple of years, has leased that publication and in the future will have entire charge. "Pete" is an all round newspaper man and is entitled to all the patronage the business men of that town may give him. Success to you, brother.—McHenry Tribune.

Editor Carl E. Peterson has leased the Binford Times for one year and will try his luck at running that old rag of freedom all
