

showing Binford up.

Larson, Ringlee & Co. have begun removing some of their goods to Sutton, where Mr. Ringlee has purchased the interests of his partners in the store at that place. The company will close the doors of their store in Binford March first, and what goods are on hand at that time will be divided between the store at Sutton and Aneta. Mr. Ringlee still retains his interest in the store at Aneta, but in the transaction which was made; he and his son, A. W., become the sole owners of the Sutton property. Mr. Larson will move to Aneta. This will leave Binford with only one general merchandise store, and this is to be regretted, even though it will be for a short period.
