

The new block and other improvements have been installed in the meat market this week, and makes this place of business a very inviting one, besides being a great convenience to those employed there. Mr. Gilbertson has made a number of changes since assuming the ownership of the meat market that is appreciated by the public.

The weather for the past week has