

here this week.

A new buggy shed is being added to the barn at the Lutheran parsonage this week. A telephone has also been placed in the house so any one wishing to speak to the pastor now may do so without imposing on the neighbors.