

news, and extend congratulations.

The Knight moving picture show, which gave two entertainments here Monday and Tuesday evenings, were well attended in spite of the inclement weather. Mr. Knight's pictures stand out distinctly and do not become tiresome to the eye, and he has a sufficient variety of films on hand, so that the fancy of every spectator is satisfied. Should he ever come this way again he will be greeted by a larger house.

The Times has been informed that