

A GUARANTEED ATTRACTION

Coming to the Binford Opera House Saturday, Nov. 22.

At last we have secured an attraction we feel safe in recommending—an attraction that for the last eight years has been breaking the records, playing to capacity business. The Mysterious Smith company is this season carrying a much larger company than ever before, with $5,000 of stage equipment, with a beautiful velvet setting. It requires two big loads of trunks and crates for one act alone.

There will be many new features seen with this attraction this year. A beautiful Tabloid Drama in one act entitiled 'Where the Trail Ends,' will be produced in connection with this production.

Other new feature specialties, such as soubrettes, singers, musician dancers, jugglers and contortionists.

Never in this has there been produced such big illusions and mysteries as Mysterious Smith will present this season.

His work does not consist of magic. Don't go to the theatre thinking you will see sleight-of-hand, as that small work passed his hands many years ago and is now devoting his time to something new in the way of big illusions and mysteries.

Don't fail to see this show, as it is one of the greatest treats of the season, and comes to your city as one the best recommended attractions on the road today. If you desire good seats, get your tickets early.
