

The play to be given by Binford local talent has been postponed a week, the date being set for March 29th instead of March 22nd. Some hard work is being done by those taking part to get the play on in good shape by that time.