

at Maurer hotel.

Monday was road day, and as many of the citizens as could break away from their business places, went out and picked rocks and removed large boulders from the road leading north of town. Another day will be set in the near future for more clearing work on this road, as it is the intention to remove the rocks and stones all the way out to the lake.

---