

---

Five cars and the caboose of Tuesday's freight were derailed near Mose. A spread rail was the cause of the accident. The ties were torn up for a distance of 25 rail lengths. The accident happened on an eight-foot embankment and it seems a miracle that the cars were not thrown into the ditch.

A 500-gallon underground gasoline