

School Notes.

Evelyn Alfson was a visitor in the cinary room Wednesday forenoon.

Josephine Thingelstad spent the first of the week in Fargo.

Crocuses have been a frequent and acceptable offering lately.

Katherine Norman was absent two half days during this week.

Harold Wilson was absent Tuesday morning as he made a trip to Mose.

Room II has just finished the reading of "The Mystery of the Carroll Ranch." The mystery was solved to the satisfaction of all. We are now reading "Eben Holden" by Irving Bacheller.

The third grade has memorized "Sweet and Low" by Alfred Tennyson and are studying "The Ugly Duckling" by Hans Christian Anderson.

The eight grade grammar class has committed "For a' That and a' That" by Robert Burns.
