

School Notes.

Minnie Drummond and Hazel Maurer were each absent a half day the past week.

The seventh grade is studying Africa this month.

Inez Greenland won the prize for having the highest standing for the month of April.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the grammar grades during the month of April are May Brill, Alma Ford, Inez Greenland, and Ivar Knapp.

Mrs. Gorthy called at the building Thursday afternoon.

The grammar grades have chosen blue and gold as their room colors, violets their room flower and "June Song" as their favorite song. Their yell is:

Rah, re, ri, ro!
Ring, ching, chang!
Binford High Room!
Zip, boom, bang!

Lydia Halling and Lillie and Thinka Olsgard were absent from school on Tuesday on account of the storm.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the intermediate grades during the month of April: Alice Alm, Frederica and Christian Behm, Agnes Dahlin, Marion and Raymond Gorthy, Ida Goplin, Florence Greenland, Johnny Hagberg, Floyd and Mark King, Manfred Knapp, Irene Pritz, Olaf and George Standal, Susie and Nellie Shaw, and Harold Schoondyke.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the primary room during the month of April are, Evelyn, Laura, Arthur Amundson, Leroy and Evelyn Alfson, Helen Alm, Sidney Bakke, Alton Cannon, Leonard Dahlin, Christ Hagberg, Lydia and Robert King, Edna Lewis, Katherine Norman, Olaf Norman, Nellie Pritz, Laura Rice, Alvin Shaw, Arthur Standal, and Morris Schoondyke.