

School Notes.

Josephine Thingelstad was absent one half day this week.

Carl Norstrum was on the sick list last Thursday and Friday.

Millie Pratt enrolled in the second grade on Wednesday.

In spite of the stormy weather, Wednesday, there was a full attendance in all three rooms.

January 29th was a notable day, since it brought the birthdays of two persons, Julia Alm and William McKinley.

Melvin Mellum, Harwell West and Edna Sorvik were absent last week. This is the greatest number of weekly absences we have had this year.

The North Dakota Childrens' Home Finder—combined issues for Dec. 15, 1911, and Feb. 15, 1912, has been received. It contains the list of all the schools contributing to the fund on Children's Home Day. The showing is very good, one district school contributed $30. The largest offering of all came from Ambrose, $40.27.
