

School Notes.

Hazel Maurer is absent on Wednesday of this week on account of a relapse.

Nellie Shaw and Elmer Wilson are absent on account of illness.

Lillian Swenson was champion speller in Room III Friday afternoon.

Harwell West was absent from school Monday morning.

Harold Wilson is absent this week from Room III on account of measles at home.

Clarence and Della Simons gave the teachers and some of the pupils of the upper grades a sleigh ride one evening this week.

The fourth and fifth grades are to have a multiplication table contest Friday morning.

Olga Dahlin is on the absent list in Room III this week.

Lillie Amundson's father, Emil Amundson, of near Aneta, visited between trains at the building on Wednesday.

The seventh grade grammar class is studying Lincoln's Gettysburg address this week.

Johnny Hagberg, Pearl Peterson, Carl Norstrum, Floyd Wilson, and John Ramsfield are on the absent list this week.

Mrs. Hanstad called at the building last week.

The third grade class has memorized "The Children's Hour" by Longfellow.

Mrs. Truscott and son, Donald, were visitors on Friday P. M.

Thelma Greenland, Phyllis Peterson, Myrtle Pritz, Luverne Reid, Gladys Hanstad, Leroy Alfson, Mildred Alfson, and Olaf Norman were guests in the primary room on Friday afternoon.

Ruth Alfson called in Room III on Wednesday.