

by Holstein 3; base on balls, off Holstein 1, off Carlson 2; hit by pitcher, Carlson (Ringlee), Holstein (Hunish) Umpires, Burgess and Lewis.

Binford.....0 0 2 0 1 0 2 0 x-5
Kensal0 0 0 0 1 1 0 0 0-2

School Notes.

Mrs. Lewis was a guest in the primary room on Thursday of last week.

Evelyn Alfson returned to school Monday after an absence of several weeks on account of illness.

Mrs. West called at the building Friday forenoon.

The eighth grade Geography class is reviewing the distribution of plants and animals this week.

Mrs. Evers and Mrs. Reid and daughter, Eleanor, were guests on Friday afternoon.

The second grade class is studying Stevenson's "Shadow March" this week.

Mrs. Truscott was a visitor in the primary room Monday forenoon.

Olaf Bakke was absent from school on Wednesday.

Rueben Arneson is on the absent list these days.

The eighth grade arithmetic class is reviewing the subject of circles, spheres, cones and prisms this week.

Harold Bakke was absent Monday and Tuesday on account of sore eyes.

Mrs. Arneson visited the primary room Monday afternoon.

Katherine Norman was absent on Monday and Tuesday.

Ejnar Gunderson was absent from school Tuesday afternoon.

THE CHURCHES

UNITED LUTHERAN CHURCH.
T. E. SWEGER, PASTOR.

There will be Norwegian services in the United Lutheran church next Sunday forenoon at 11 o'clock.

English services in the evening at 7:30.

GERMAN LUTHERAN CHURCH.
PAUL F. SIEGEL, PASTOR.

Confirmation services in Zion's church, Sunday, June 1st, at 10:00 a. m. Holy communion will be celebrated.

A New Bank for Aneta.

O. M. Brunsvold of Hannaford, N. Dak., together with associates from Iowa, Minnesota and North Dakota, has organized the Citizens' State bank at Aneta.

The people interested in the new bank are associated with several banks in the east, and they will operate the bank at Aneta in connection with their eastern institutions.

They are opening up business at once and will occupy temporary quarters until their building is completed. The city ordinance provides that new business structures must