

School Notes.

Inez Greenland won the prize for having the highest standing of any pupil in the grammar grades during the month of November.

Julia Alm spent Monday with friends at Sutton.

Much interest prevails over the debate to be held Wednesday afternoon.

The contribution to the Children's Home at Fargo amounted to five dollars and fifty cents. A barrel of clothes is also being sent.

The third grade has begun memorizing the poem, "The First Snow Fall."

Robert Carrol was absent from school Monday forenoon.

Mildred Alfson visited in Coopers-town Thursday and Friday.

The second grade has memorized the poem "Thanksgiving" by Holmes.

Those neither absent nor tardy the past month in the intermediate grades: Alice Alm, Christian Behm, Florence Greenland, Johnny Hagberg, Mark and Floyd King, Howard Lewis, Carl Norstrum, Olaf and George Standahl, Susie and Nellie Shaw, and Harold Bakke.

There were twenty-three neither absent nor tardy in the primary room during the past month viz: Evlyn, Laura and Arthur Amundson Walter and Reuben Arneson, Leroy and Evelyn Alfson, Helen Alm, Blanche Greenland, Sidney Bakke, Alton Cannon, Leonard Dahlin, Arnold Goplin, Christie Hagberg, Myrtle and Gladys Hanstad, Lydia and Robert King, Edna Lewis, Nellie Pritz, Gladys Reid, Laura Riee and Alvin Peterson.