

School Notes.

Esther Halling is visiting in Valley City.

The fifth grade has completed the study of the poem "Lead Kindly Light" by John H. Newman.

Hazel Maurer was absent from school Tuesday.

The third grade began reading in the Cyr's Third Reader on Monday.

The pupils of the grammar department were given interesting accounts of cowboy life on the western plains and the western method of irrigation by the young men who called at the building to secure data for the new "North Dakota History."

Joseph Myron has returned to school after several days absence.

Hans Amlie was absent from school Monday and Tuesday of the past week.

Carl Norstrom was absent from school Monday forenoon, as he had the earache.

Mrs. Rorvig was a visitor in the primary room on Friday afternoon.

Phyllis Peterson returned to school Tuesday after an absence of two weeks.

Miss Laura Krogfoss and Mrs. C. Krogfoss were guests on Friday forenoon.

The second grade is studying "October's Party" this week.

Mrs. Truscott visited the Primary room Monday forenoon.

Robert Carrol was on the sick list Monday.

Mrs. Arneson was a visitor on Friday P. M.