

School Notes.

The Latin class is busy now with the first declension.

Lillian Jackson was absent from school Friday on account of illness.

Miss Ella Erickson presented the primary room with some pretty plants.

Rev. J. K. Arnot, of Fessenden, was a visitor on Tuesday.

Evelyn Alfson visited at Coopers-town Tuesday.

There are now thirty-seven pupils enrolled in the primary room. Five new ones enrolled this week, viz: Oliver Gunderson, Bertha, Clara, Emil and Rueben Erickson.

The drawing classes of the intermediate grades painted a landscape in water colors for their first lesson.

Hildur Gunderson, formerly of the Binford schools, re-entered last Monday as a student of the sixth grade.

Josephine Thingelstad was absent Friday and Tuesday afternoons. She is having dental work done in Cooperstown.

The class in Commercial Law is now making a study of the subject of contracts.

The third grade pupils studied Lowell's "First Snowfall" on Tuesday.

Mrs. Arneson was a guest in the primary room on Wednesday afternoon.

The girls of the primary grades spent a pleasant hour Friday p. m. in making aprons while the boys did carpenter work.

Laura and Arthur Amundson were absent on Tuesday.

Many thanks to Howard Lewis, Carl Norstrom and Gotfred Gilbertson for pretty plants.

The Knowledge Seekers' Literary Society re-organized last Friday and the following officers were elected: Pres., Esther Halling; Vice Pres., Hazel Maurer; Sec., Olaf Bakke. A program committee was appointed by the president, viz: Hazel Maurer, Lillian Swenson, Julia Alm, and Miss Persons. The following program will be given on Friday p. m., Sept. 27: Song, primary grades. Reading, Hidden Treasure,—Reade, Esther Halling. Round, The Soldiers, Inez Greenland, Hildur Gunderson and Alice Alm. Reading, The Yankee Girl—Whittier, Hazel Maurer. Song, primary grades. Dialog, A Slight Misunderstanding, Joseph Myron and Julia Alm. Recitation, Half a League, Lillian Swenson. Song, America, by the school.

Your support at the November