

The annual meeting of the members of the United Lutheran church was held Monday. The old officers were re-elected, the financial condition gone over, and new members were enrolled.