

The annual village treasurer's statement is published in The Times this week, and shows that the village's finances are in excellent condition, which, no doubt, is gratifying to all. The statement shows that the village is free from debt and that a nice balance of $883.50 is in the hands of the treasurer. A great deal of credit is due the board of trustees for this showing. They have been economical in the expenditure of the village funds, and have made many improvements during the past year which have shown good judgment. Look over the statement.
