

months.

Conductor T. J. Blewett has returned from the Brainerd hospital and is fast recovering his normal condition. He recently underwent a critical operation for obstruction of the bowels and his friends are delighted to see him about once more.

—Sanborn Enterprise.