

F. C. Boeckman has been appointed nightwatchman, and entered upon his duties Monday night. Fred is capable of handling this job, and we believe the village dads made a wise choice. He will be a terror on any lawless element that attempts to break the laws and disturb the peace of our town.