

building.

John P. Vangen, wife and little son, John, returned last Friday from Tuttle, where they had gone with their son-in-law, Pete Hanson, to assist him in preparing for spring's work on his homestead. They were accompanied back by John Carlson, who will be employed on the Vangen farm this season.