

---

Christianson Gets Parole.

J. C. Christianson, former agent of the Bovey-Shute Lumber Co., at Tokio, and pitcher for the Pekin base ball team, last season, pleaded guilty to having embezzled funds of the company last summer, and in view of the fact that he was only 22 years, that his wrong doing was caused by intoxicating liquor and on the recommendation of the lumber company and the state's attorney, the court after sentencing the defendant to one year in the penitentiary, paroled him under the new law.

---