

to have some local success.

Wilbur T. Cole arrived here yesterday from his home at Mount Ayr, Iowa, and will remain here during the base ball season. He will be our mainstay in the pitching department and his ability there is well known locally and in the surrounding towns. The management is in communication with a catcher and an infielder, and by next week we hope to be able to announce a complete line-up.