

member for him.

The "cellar doors" which have been a nuisance on the Palace hotel sidewalk for a number of years, have finally been removed, the walk cemented up and the unwieldy doors replaced by a manhole which fills the bill of requirements perfectly and is a decided improvement for those of us who are forced by necessity to navigate on foot.