

Judge R. S. Cowie, of Whitehall, Wisconsin, arrived here last Friday and remained until Monday visiting with the Larson and Ringlee families. He was county judge of Tremleau county during the time C. F. Ringlee was register of deeds of the the same county. Mr. Cowie is one of the influential politicians of his state, having been a member of the board of control, and was assistant secretary of the navy under President Taft. His visit here was an enjoyable one for all concerned.
