

A very pleasant afternoon was spent yesterday when about twenty-five relatives, including children, grandchildren and others, gathered at the H. J. Maurer home to help Grandma Davidson celebrate her seventy-fifth birthday anniversary. A delectable lunch was served by Mrs. Maurer. Mrs. Davidson was presented with many tokens of esteem, all wishing her many happy returns of the day.