

Olaf Elvrum, who was arrested last Friday, on a charge of grand larceny, had his hearing Saturday morning in Justice Larson's court, and waived examination, and taken to Cooperstown, to await his hearing at the district court, which was held Tuesday. After deliberating only a few hours, the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal.

Assistant to the fourth assistant