

erable weight during his illness.

J. D. Erickson has resigned as agent for the Great Western Grain Co. here and will go back on the farm. He's another fellow that knows there's no place like home.

A large number of the Jessie citi-