

day.

County Superintendent of Highways Martin Ueland was here last week. The legislature at its recent session passed a new law creating the office of county superintendent of highways, and Mr. Ueland was appointed by the county commissioners at their April meeting. He appoints the overseer in each township and it was for this purpose that he was up in this end of the county. Mr. Ueland appointed the following: Lewis Hanstad in Willow, Carl Asmus in Rosendal, Engebret Iverson in Bryan, M. D. Leinger in Kingsley, A. M. Hemerlin in Addie, John Evers in Clearfield.

An order has been received at the io-