

The local meat market changed hands again last Saturday when Henry Peterson bought the establishment from Gilbert Gilbertson. We understand that Mr. Peterson will engage a first-class butcher and will give his patrons the best of service.

The former citizen who makes