A dispatch from Saskatoon says: Max Schultz of Winnepeg, won from Roy Gratias, claimant of the heavy-weight wrestling championship of Canada, in a match here last night night. Gratias lost the match when his right arm was twisted out of joint at the elbow by a powerful wrist and half Nelson hold Schultz had secured on him. The accident happened after ten minutes of wrestling. Gratias will be laid up for two months. The decision was awarded in favor of Schultz, Gratias not being able to continue. A purse of $300 was divided 75 per cent and 25 per cent. Jack Connolly and Schultz gave a thirty minute exhibition without a fall.
