

navigate on foot.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ing. Greenland was kicked in the head by one of the colts Monday. Quite a bad gash was made and she was brought in to Dr. Almklov who took several stitches in the wound. The little girl was playing about the yard while the rest of the family were at dinner and her absence was unnoticed until the accident occurred.

Water is here on a branch but