

Oscar Greenland and family autoed to Reynolds last Saturday to spend Sunday with the O. S. Gunderson family. They returned Monday. Mr. Greenland brought along home a big pumpkin that had been given him by a prosperous farmer near Reynolds. The "fruit" weighed 77 pounds. It has been on exhibition at the First National bank, and many curious ones have been in examining it.

Ben West, the trailer has