

Chris Heinson returned last Thursday from Fargo, where he was in attendance at the meeting of the state rural carriers. He says that he was the only one present outside of the members from Cass county.