

who attends school there.

Chris Heinson returned from McHenry last Friday, where he was confined at his brother's home with a severe cold. He is now fully recovered from his illness and back on the job of driving the mail.

Oscar Danderson and wife who