

First-class workman.

Last Sunday, was the occasion of Miss Inez Hemerlin's birthday, and she was presented with a beautiful piano, which her father gave to her. There is little doubt but what Miss Inez will prize this gift very highly and it will be an adornment to her home, and in the course of a few years she will amply repay for the instrument by the knowledge of music which she will have derived therefrom.

---